South Africa

the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa a terrorist state, to impose comprehensive sanctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1992 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa, and diplomatic pressure until there is an irreversible, full and fair accommodation with the black majority to create a democratic government with full rights for all its citizens. 1994 D D D 1996 D R R R Four years ago, South Africa was struggling under political violence associated with apartheid. Now,	Year	Pres.	House	Senate	Democrats	Republicans
1908 R R R R 1912 R D R 1916 D D D 1924 R R R 1924 R R R 1932 R R R 1932 R R R 1932 R R R 1932 R R R 1936 D D D 1940 D D D 1940 D D D 1940 D D D 1948 D R 1956 R D D 1956 R D D 1956 R D D 1956 R D D 1968 D D D 1972 R D D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonalism in southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nonwhite peoples in Southern Africa. There which is a comparable to the process of th	1900	R	R	R
1908 R R R R 1912 R D R 1916 D D D 1924 R R R 1924 R R R 1932 R R R 1932 R R R 1932 R R R 1932 R R R 1936 D D D 1940 D D D 1940 D D D 1940 D D D 1948 D R 1956 R D D 1956 R D D 1956 R D D 1956 R D D 1968 D D D 1972 R D D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonalism in southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nonwhite peoples in Southern Africa. There which is a comparable to the process of th	1904	R	R	R
1912 R D R 1916 D D D 1920 D R R 1916 D D D 1920 D R R 1928 R R R 1938 R R R 1938 D D D 1944 D D D 1944 D D D 1956 R D D 1960 R D D 1960 R D D 1960 R D D 1960 R D D 1972 R D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side wa are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other normwith peoples in Southern Africa. There as hould be no mistake about which side wa are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other normwith peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white-minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end United States complicitly with such governments. 1976 R D D 1980 D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D R A Democratic President will. 1984 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa at errorist state, to impose comprehensive sanctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration will. 1982 R D D D Marking and unequivocally oppose the apartheid system of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa and consider it morally reput the state of the state of the calaractions against South Africa and consider it morally reput the state of the state of the state of the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1992 R D D Marking and unequivocally oppose the apartheid seliminated from South Africa and consider it morally reput the series of the state of the state of the state of the state
1916 D D D D 1920 D R R R R 1924 R R R 1932 R R R 1932 R R R 1936 D D D D 1940 D D D D 1940 D D D D 1940 D D D 1940 D D D 1956 R D D D 1956 R D D D 1968 D D D 1969 D D 1969 D D 1969 D D 1969 D D D 1969 D D D 1969 D D 1960
1924 R R R R 1932 R R R 1932 R R R 1932 R R R 1936 D D D 1940 D D D 1940 D D D 1944 D D D 1956 R D D 1958 D D 1968 D D D 1972 R D D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nonwhite peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end United States complicity with such governments. 1976 R D D 1980 D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D R A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's falled policy of "constructive engagement", and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's falled policy of constructive engagement, to declare south Africa and tractive sanctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1992 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa, the Republican policy of constructive engagement and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1994 D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa, the Republican policy of constructive engagement and in the black majority to create a democratic government with full richts for all its clitzens.
1924 R R R R 1928 R R R 1937 R R R 1938 R R R 1938 D D D 1944 D D D 1944 D D D 1944 D D D 1948 D R R 1952 D D D 1968 R D D 1968 D D 1968 D D 1968 D D 1972 R D D 1972 R D D 1974 R D D 1975 R D D 1976 R D D 1977 R D D 1978 R D D 1980 R D R A D R R R R 1981 R D R R R R 1982 R D D R R R R 1983 R D D R R R R 1984 R D D R R R R R 1985 R D D R R R R 1985 R D D R R R R R 1985 R D D R R R R R R 1985 R D D R R R R R R R R R R 1986 R D D R R R R R R R R R 1986 R D D R R R R R R R R R R R R R R R R			_
1932 R R R R 1932 R R R R 1936 D D D 1940 D D D 1940 D D D 1940 D D D 1948 D R R 1952 D D D 1956 R D D 1968 D D D 1968 D D D 1968 D D D 1972 R D D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, icivil and economic rights for black and other nowhite peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end United States complicity with such governments. 1976 R D D 1980 D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D R A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's failed policy of "constructive engagement" and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1988 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa a terrorist state, to impose comprehensive sanctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1992 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa and consider it morally reput to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa and consider it morally reput to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa and consider it morally reput to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa and consider it morally reput to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa and consider it morally reput to the south Africa and consider it morally reput to the south Africa and consider it morally reput to the s	1920	D	R	R
1932 R R R 1936 D D D 1940 D D D 1944 D D D 1944 D D D 1948 D R R 1952 D D D 1956 R D D 1968 D D 1968 D D 1968 D D 1972 R D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nonwhite peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white-minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end United States complicity with such governments. 1976 R D D 1980 D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D R A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration staled policy of constructive engagement, and strongly and unequivocally oppose the aparthelid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1988 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa and tronsider it morally rept South Africa and consider it morally rept South Africa and south Africa and consider it morally rept South	1924	R	R	R
1940 D D D 1944 D D D D 1948 D R R 1952 D D D 1956 R D D 1968 D D 1968 D D 1972 R D D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nonwhite peoples in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nonwhite peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white-minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end United States complicity with such governments. 1976 R D D 1980 D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D R A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's failed polity of 'constructive engagement' and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1988 R D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the lailed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa and consider it morally rept Administration will. 1988 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. A Democratic Orontructive engagement—opposing apartheid, and we will not rest un apartheid is eliminated from South Africa, and information pressure until there is an irreversible, full and fair accommodation with the black majority to create a democratic government with full rights for all its citizens. 1994 D D D 1996 D R P Four years ago, South Africa was struggling under political violence associated with apartheid. Now,	1928	R	R	R
1944 D D D D 1948 D R R R 1952 D D D 1956 R D D D 1968 D D D 1968 D D D 1968 D D D 1968 D D D 1972 R D D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nomwhite peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white-minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end United States complicity with such governments. 1976 R D D 1980 D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's falled policy of "constructive engagement" and strongly and unequivocally oppose the agartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1988 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the falled policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa and consider it morally reput Africa, and adare cartain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1992 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa, and we will not rest un apartheid is eliminated from South Africa, existing limits on deductibility of taxes paid to South Africa, and we will not rest un apartheid is eliminated from South Africa, existing limits on deductibility of taxes paid to South Africa, and troversible, full and fair accommodation with the black majority to create a democratic government with full rights for all its citizens. 1994 D D D Four years ago, South Africa was struggling under political violence associated with spartheid. Now,	1932	R	R	R
1944 D D D 1948 D R R 1952 D D D 1956 R D D 1960 R D D 1960 R D D 1968 D D D 1968 D D D 1972 R D D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nonwhite peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white-minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end United States complicity with such governments. 1976 R D D 1980 D D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D R A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's failed policy of "constructive engagement" and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1988 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa a terrorist state, to impose comprehensive anctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa, and a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa and consider it morally reput Africa in support of an investment code of conduct, existing limits on deductibility of taxes paid to South Africa, and and we will not rest unapartheid is eliminated from South Africa and reput in the support of an investment code of conduct, existing limits on deductibility of taxes paid to South Africa, the Republican policy of constructive engagement—opposing ap while fostering peaceful change—has be a irreversible, full and fair accommodation with the black majority to create a democratic government with full rights for all its citizens. 1994 D D D 1996 D R P Four years ago, South Africa was struggling under political violence associated wit	1936	D	D	D
1948 D R R R 1952 D D D 1956 R D D 1964 D D D 1964 D D D 1968 D D D 1972 R D D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, (vill and economic rights for black and other nonwhite peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white-minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end United States complicity with such governments. 1976 R D D 1980 D D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D R A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's failed policy of "constructive engagement" and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1988 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa a terrorist State, to impose comprehensive sanctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1992 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa, and we will not rest un apartheid is eliminated from South Africa in support of an investment code of conduct, existing limits on deductibility of taxes paid to South Africa, the Republican policy of constructive engagement—opposing ap while fostering peaceful change—has be accessful. That nation's prospects have transformed for the better, though man irreversible, full and fair accommodation with the black majority to create a democratic government with full rights for all its citizens. 1994 D D D 1996 D R R Four years ago, South Africa was struggling under political violence associated with apartheid. Now,	1940	D	D	D
1952 D D D 1968 R D D D 1968 D D D 1968 D D D 1972 R D D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nonwhite peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white-minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end United States complicity with such governments. 1976 R D D 1980 D D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D R A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's failed policy of "constructive engagement" and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1988 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa a terrorist state, to impose comprehensive sanctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1992 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa, in support of an investment code of conduct, existing limits on deductibility of taxes paid to South Africa, and diplomatic pressure until there is an irreversible, full and fair accommodation with the black majority to create a democratic government with full rights for all its citizens. 1994 D D D 1994 D D D 1996 D R R Four years ago, South Africa was struggling under political violence associated with apartheid. Now,	1944	D	D	D
1952 D D D 1968 R D D D 1968 D D D 1968 D D D 1972 R D D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nonwhite peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white-minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end United States complicity with such governments. 1976 R D D 1980 D D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D R A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's failed policy of "constructive engagement" and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1988 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa a terrorist state, to impose comprehensive sanctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1992 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa, in support of an investment code of conduct, existing limits on deductibility of taxes paid to South Africa, and diplomatic pressure until there is an irreversible, full and fair accommodation with the black majority to create a democratic government with full rights for all its citizens. 1994 D D D 1994 D D D 1996 D R R Four years ago, South Africa was struggling under political violence associated with apartheid. Now,	1948	D	R	R
1956 R D D D 1968 D D D 1968 D D D 1972 R D D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nonwhite peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white-minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end United States complicity with such governments. 1976 R D D 1980 D D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's failed policy of 'constructive engagement' and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1988 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa a terrorist state, to impose comprehensive sanctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1992 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa in support of an investment code of conduct, existing limits on deductibility of taxes paid to South Africa, the Republican policy of Control of the South Africa and Constructive engagement—opposing ay while fostering peaceful change—has be successful. That nation's prospects have transformed for the better, though man difficulties lie ahead.
1968 B D D D 1972 R D D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nonwhite peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white-minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end United States complicity with such governments. 1976 R D D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D R A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's failed policy of "constructive engagement" and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1988 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa a terrorist state, to impose comprehensive and community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1992 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa, the Republican policy of Africa, and diplomatic pressure until there is an irreversible, full and fair accommodation with the black majority to create a democratic government with full rights for all its citizens.
1972 R D D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nomwhite peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white-minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end United States complicity with such governments. 1976 R D D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D R A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's failed policy of "constructive engagement" and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1988 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa a terrorist state, to impose comprehensive sanctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1992 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa, and diplomatic pressure until there is an irreversible, full and fair accommodation with the black majority to create a democratic government with full rights for all its citizens. 1994 D D D 1996 D R R Four years ago, South Africa was struggling under political violence associated with apartheid. Now, 1972 R D D D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nonwhite peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white-minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end United States complicity with such governments. 1980 D D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D R A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's failed policy of constructive engagement" and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will strate to will be a partheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1992 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa in support of an investment code of conduct, existing limits on deductibility of taxes paid to South Africa, the Republican policy of constructive engagement—opposing ap while fostering peaceful change—has be successful. That nation's prospects have transformed for the better, though man difficulties lie ahead. 1994 D D D 1996 D R R R Four years ago, South Africa was struggling under political violence associated with apartheid. Now,
1972 R D D The central feature of African politics today is the struggle against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nonwhite peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white-minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end United States complicity with such governments. 1976 R D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D R A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's failed policy of constructive engagement" and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1988 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa a terrorist state, to impose comprehensalve sanctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1992 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa in support of an investment code of conduct, existing limits on deductibility of taxes paid to South Africa, the Republican policy of constructive engagement—opposing ap while fostering peaceful change—has be successful. That nation's prospects have transformed for the better, though man diripits for all its citizens. 1994 D D D 1996 D R R R Four years ago, South Africa was struggling under political violence associated with apartheid. Now,	1964	D	D	D
against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nonwhite peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white-minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end United States complicity with such governments. 1976 R D D D We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any country in which they occur including South Africa. 1984 R D R A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's failed policy of "constructive engagement" and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1988 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa a terrorist state, to impose comprehensive sanctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1992 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa in support of an investment code of conduct, existing limits on deductibility of taxes paid to South Africa, the Republican policy of constructive engagement—opposing ap while fostering peaceful change—has be successful. That nation's prospects have transformed for the better, though man dights for all its citizens.	1968	D	D	D
1984 R D R A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's failed policy of "constructive engagement" and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1988 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa a terrorist state, to impose comprehensive sanctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1992 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa, and diplomatic pressure until there is an irreversible, full and fair accommodation with the black majority to create a democratic government with full rights for all its citizens. 1994 D D D 1996 D R R R Four years ago, South Africa was struggling under political violence associated with apartheid. Now,	1972	R	D	D	against racism and colonialism in Southern Africa. There should be no mistake about which side we are on. We stand for full political, civil and economic rights for black and other nonwhite peoples in Southern Africa. We are against white-minority rule. We should not underwrite a return to the interventionism of the past. But we can end
1984 R D R A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's failed policy of "constructive engagement" and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1988 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa a terrorist state, to impose comprehensive sanctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1992 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa, and diplomatic pressure until there is an irreversible, full and fair accommodation with the black majority to create a democratic government with full rights for all its citizens. 1994 D D D 1996 D R R R Four years ago, South Africa was struggling under political violence associated with apartheid. Now,	1976	R	D	D
1984 R D R A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's failed policy of "constructive engagement" and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic Administration will. 1988 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa a terrorist state, to impose comprehensive sanctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. 1992 R D D Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa, and diplomatic pressure until there is an irreversible, full and fair accommodation with the black majority to create a democratic government with full rights for all its citizens. 1994 D D D R R R Four years ago, South Africa was struggling under political violence associated with apartheid. Now,	1980	D	D	D	We must be vigilant about human rights violations in any
1988 R D D We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa a terrorist state, to impose comprehensive sanctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States corporations must leave South Africa. Maintenance of state and local sanctions against South Africa, and diplomatic pressure until there is an irreversible, full and fair accommodation with the black majority to create a democratic government with full rights for all its citizens. Republicans deplore the apartheid syste South Africa and consider it morally republican devil of apartheid, and veril of apartheid, and veril of apartheid, and veril of apartheid is eliminated from South Africa apartheid is eliminated from South Africa oval apartheid is eliminated from South Africa veril of apartheid is eliminated from South Afr	1984	R	D	R	A Democratic President will reverse the Reagan Administration's failed policy of "constructive engagement" and strongly and unequivocally oppose the apartheid regime in South Africa. A Democratic
Africa in support of an investment code of conduct, existing limits on deductibility of taxes paid to South Africa, and diplomatic pressure until there is an irreversible, full and fair accommodation with the black majority to create a democratic government with full rights for all its citizens. 1994 D D D 1996 D R R R Four years ago, South Africa was struggling under political violence associated with apartheid. Now,	1988	R	D	D	We believe that the time has come to end all vestiges of the failed policy of constructive engagement, to declare South Africa a terrorist state, to impose comprehensive sanctions upon its economy, to lead the international community in participation in these actions, and to determine a date certain by which United States	Republicans deplore the apartheid system of South Africa and consider it morally repugnant. All who value human liberty understand the evil of apartheid, and we will not rest until apartheid is eliminated from South Africa.
1996 D R R Four years ago, South Africa was struggling under political violence associated with apartheid. Now,	1992	R	D	D	Africa in support of an investment code of conduct, existing limits on deductibility of taxes paid to South Africa, and diplomatic pressure until there is an irreversible, full and fair accommodation with the black majority to create a democratic government with full	In South Africa, the Republican policy of constructive engagement—opposing apartheid while fostering peaceful change—has been successful. That nation's prospects have been transformed for the better, though many difficulties lie ahead.
political violence associated with apartheid. Now,	1994	D	D	D
strongly supported there is a national unity government and South Africa is free and democratic.	1996	D	R	R	political violence associated with apartheid. Now, following the 1994 elections which the United States strongly supported there is a national unity

South Africa

2000 R	R	R
2004 R	R	R
2008 R	D	D
2012 D	R	D
2016 D	R	R
2020 R	D	R
2024 D	R	D